IMEC (Marie Cobel) with “Friends”
November 25, 1985

Session 173: The value of the nothingness, the null point

Summary: How the observer became subordinate to aspective qualities. Explanation of the aspects. The natural states of the aspects when subordinate to the observer. The null point, the nothingness, the place of the observer. Further examples of how things are out of balance when the aspects are made to be in charge.

Report by Jane Coleman